

*Need copyright
information, application forms, or the latest regulation?*

Get it Quick Over the Net

► www.copyright.gov

- Most of the information the Copyright Office makes available on paper is also available for viewing and downloading from our website at www.copyright.gov. In addition, records of registrations and document recordings from 1978 forward are online. See the homepage and list below for examples of what is available.

- For general information on copyright, click on Copyright Basics.
- To obtain a form to register or renew a claim to copyright, click on Forms.
- Click on Circulars and Brochures to access nearly 50 information circulars, from copyright basics to how to record a document to current fees.
- To search the Copyright Office Website, go to Search our site.
- To search the Office's online records, click on Search Copyright Records.
- To read, download, or print the copyright law, click on Copyright Law.

- With the exception of the application forms, our most frequently requested materials are also available via Fax-on-Demand. If you have fax access, call us at (202) 707-2600 from any touchtone phone. Follow the directions to receive up to three items at one time. Or, you can call the Forms and Publications Hotline at (202) 707-9100 to leave a recorded request for specific application forms and circulars. The Copyright Office TTY number is (202) 707-6737.

- The Copyright Office mailing address is
*Library of Congress
Copyright Office
101 Independence Avenue, S.E.
Washington, D.C. 20559-6000*